

The priest prays, then all conclude:
All: For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever.

P: Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles: I leave you peace, my peace I give you. Look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and grant us the peace and unity of your kingdom where you live for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

P: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

All: And also with you.

[P: Let us offer each other the sign of peace.
All may make a sign of peace according to local custom.]

All: Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Those now in communion with the Catholic Church share in the Eucharist. Anyone who is not a Catholic is still welcome to receive a sign of unity and support—a blessing—by approaching the front with arms crossed over your chest.

My fortress, I stand firm.

For my hope comes from him.
He alone is my rock, my stronghold,

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

All bow during these two lines:

by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Each intercession is followed by a response such as:

R: Lord, in your mercy.

All: Hear our prayer.

or

R: Lord, hear us.

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

There is a pause for silent prayer: the conclusion is said by the priest, to which all reply: Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Preparation of the Gifts

A hymn may be sung as the gifts are collected and presented at the altar.

When all is ready, the priest says:

P: Pray, brethren, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Eucharistic Prayer

P: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The priest says the Preface: all join in the acclamation:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

(This text should be sung at Sunday Mass: musical settings may use slightly different words—please consult your hymnal.)

The priest says the Eucharistic prayer of thanksgiving, recalling the command of Jesus Christ, 'Do this in memory of me'.

The priest introduces and all then acclaim:

P: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Dying you destroyed our death, rising you restored our life, Lord Jesus, come in glory!

(There are four possible texts for this acclamation, one of which ideally should be sung at Sunday Mass: please consult your hymnal.)

At the Doxology at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, all join in the Great Amen.

COMMUNION RITE

The Lord's Prayer

P: Let us pray with confidence to the Father in the words our Saviour gave us:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
