First Reading: (Ephesians 2:12-22) Christ is the peace between us and has made the two into one.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord speaks peace to his people.

Gospel Acclamation: Blessed are those who, with a noble and generous heart, take the word of God to themselves and yield a harvest through their perseverance.

Gospel: (Luke 12:35-38) Happy those servants whom the master finds awake when he comes.

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

WEDNESDAY
Weekday or Saint John Paul II, Pope

Blessed John Paul II: Charles Joseph Wojtyła was born in 1920 in Wadowice, Poland. On 16 October 1978 he was elected pope and took the name John Paul II. His exceptional apostolic zeal, particularly for families, young people and the sick, led him to numerous pastoral visits throughout the world. Among the many fruits which he has left as a heritage to the Church are above all his rich Magisterium and the promulgation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as well as the Code of Canon Law for the Latin Church and for the Eastern Churches. In Rome on 2 April 2005, the eve of the Second Sunday of Easter (or of Divine Mercy), he departed peacefully in the Lord.

Entrance Antiphon To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading: (Ephesians 3:14-21) Planted in love and built on love, you are filled with the utter fullness of God.

Response to the Psalm: The Lord fills the earth with his love.

Gospel Acclamation: I am the light of the world, says the Lord, anyone who follows me will have the light of life.

Gospel Reading: (Luke 12:49-53) I am here not to bring peace but division.

Communion Antiphon: Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

THURSDAY
Weekday or Saint John of Capistrano, Priest

Saint John of Capestrano: born in 1386; after a career as a lawyer he entered the Franciscan Order, and then travelled throughout most of Europe preaching and strengthening Christian morals. He died, aged 70, in 1456.

Entrance Antiphon: To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.
